AN ACT

For the relief of Joseph J. McDevitt.

October 27, 1965
[H. R. 1311]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Joseph J. McDevitt, of Philadelphia, the sum of $584. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of his claims against the United States for reimbursement of the amount paid by him in full settlement of the judgment rendered against him on March 14, 1960, by the municipal court of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, arising out of a vehicular accident on April 8, 1957, involving a mailtruck being operated by him as an employee of the United States Post Office Department. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved October 27, 1965.
